

Travel Awards for MacLean Scholars to attend APS meeting

The 2011 APS Annual Meeting will be in San Antonio, Texas, March 9-12. The MacLean Scholar awards were created to enable at least 5 neuroscience trainees to attend the Annual Meeting and interact with the recipient of the Paul D. MacLean Award for Outstanding Neuroscience Research in Psychosomatic Medicine. MacLean Scholar winners will receive travel reimbursement in the amount of $500 to attend the meeting.

You must have submitted an abstract for the meeting to be eligible for the MacLean Scholar Award. The deadline to be considered for this award is November 1, 2010.

Please complete the form below, attach it with a copy of your curriculum vitae or biographical sketch, and send by email, FAX, or regular mail to the APS office at the address below.

Name: _____ Sex: _____ Degree: _____

Please circle one: Undergraduate student Graduate student Post-doctoral fellow

Medical Student Resident physician
(Faculty members with the rank of instructor or higher are ineligible)

Who is your mentor or advisor? _____

What is the phone/email of your mentor/advisor? _____

How long have you been in your above position? _____ Discipline: _____

Publications or other notable achievements reflecting your interest in neuroscience and medicine: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Email Address: _____

Name of other Travel Awards that you are applying for: _____

(Note: Only one travel award will be issued per trainee)

Have you ever attended an APS meeting before? _____

How did you find out about APS? _____

Research Interests: _____

Please submit form by November 1, 2010:

American Psychosomatic Society (APS)
6728 Old McLean Village Drive
McLean, Virginia 22101, USA
Phone 703-556-9222 or Fax 703-556-8729
Email: info@psychosomatic.org

For more information about APS and the meeting, please visit www.psychosomatic.org.